

Integral Skin Head Restraint Seating

Woodbridge integral skin head restraints offer natural-looking, durable, Class A surface treatments over an adjustable firmness foam core in a one-piece design. Available in three treatment options—integral skin processes—this is a more affordable alternative to secondary trim operations and an ideal solution for complex styling challenges. Further, the finished surface foam solutions are available in a wide variety of natural-looking surface treatments that can be texture and color matched for many applications.

Applications

- + Seating systems
- + Interior systems
- + Head restraints
- + Armrests
- + Door panel pads
- + Horn pads
- + Consoles
- + Steering wheels
- + Grab handles
- + Emergency brake handles
- + Shift knob

Advantages

- + Texture and color matching
- + Class A surfaces
- + Adjustable firmness

RELATED SOLUTIONS

